FACTS

9. Plaintiff retained the services of Friedman & Moses, LLP ("F&M") for the purposes of bringing an impartial due process hearing ("Impartial Hearing") against the Defendants pursuant to the IDEA and other laws to address, inter alia, a denial of a Free Appropriate Public Education ("FAPE"), claims pursuant to Section 504 statute and regulations and lack of adequate evaluations for L.E.

10. F&M's offices are located in Manhattan.
11. By letter dated October 7, 2009, F&M on behalf of B.R. and L.E. filed a request for an Impartial Hearing upon the Defendants. Defendants' case number for the Impartial Hearing was 124394.
12. By letter dated November 10, 2009, F&M on behalf of B.R. and L.E. filed an amended request for an Impartial Hearing upon the Defendants.
13. The requested Impartial Hearing was held on five hearing dates in 2010.
14. On May 3, 2010, the IHO issued a Findings of Fact and Decision on behalf of the parents (the "Final Order").
15. The Final Order afforded B.R. the relief she sought in the hearing.
16. B.R. is a prevailing party in the Impartial Hearing and, as such, is entitled to satisfaction of her debt for attorney's fees.
17. F&M has made a written demand upon Defendants for payment of reasonable attorneys' fees in connection with its representation of Plaintiff and her child at the impartial hearing.
18. As of the date this action is being filed, the parties were not able to finalize a settlement agreement.
19. The time expended by F&M's attorneys and paralegals in connection with the Impartial Hearing and this action for fees was reasonable in relation to the legal services requested and performed.

20. The fees being charged pursuant to the retainer are below market rates for the legal services performed in light of the experience and expertise of counsel and the complexity involved.

WHEREFORE, B.R. respectfully requests that the Court:

- (a) Assume jurisdiction of this action under 42 U.S.C. § 1988 and 20 U.S.C. §1415;
- (b) Award Plaintiff's reasonable attorneys' fees in the amount of $53,205.00, in accordance with her status as a prevailing party in the Impartial Hearing;
- (c) Award Plaintiff's reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, in an amount to be determined at trial, incurred in connection with the successful prosecution of this action to recover reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in connection with the impartial hearing;
- (d) Award such other and further relief as to the Court may seem just and proper.
